Italian Opera in Paris, knows; as IL NUOVO MOSE.

MME. STRAKOSCH, FERRI SUSINI, SCOLA.

SCOLA. FERRI SUSINI, SUSINI, SCOLA.

The music of MOSE IN EGITTO has been studied and rehearsed, unfor the immediate superintendence of Sig. MUZIO. The directors believe that in selecting Rossini's masterwork as the last new Opera to be brought out this season, they not only have consulted their own interests, but have likewise fulfilled the andent wish of the public at large, who for many years have been anxious to see this Opera performed. At no time could the director have brought it out with fuller justice to the fame of the great composer, and to the grandeur of the music, than at present. SIGNOR SUSINI SI Italian reputation is identified with this Opera, and he is universally considered, both in London and the principal cities in Italy, as the greatest living representative of MOSE. SIGNOR FERRI has won his last laurels in Milan as Pharsels, while SIGNOR BRIGNOLI has had the honor of creating the principal tenor part when MOSE. IN EGITTO was received some six years ago for the debut of Madama Boolo at the Grand Opera in Paris. The three leading parts are, therefore, in the hands of artists when have given abundant proof of their capability of rendering them more than adequately. As regards Miss PATTI, with her extraordinary facility and grains she has mastered the enormous difficulties of her role with such success that the directors would be sorely disappointed if the part of ANAIDE should not prove one of her most artistic achievements.
